Helping older
Australians age well,
with dignity, choice,
and care on their terms

Homeless Prevention Support

The Homeless Prevention Support helps seniors move from temporary to permanent housing with personalised support, including property viewings, applications, utilities, and home care.

By reducing time in crisis accommodation, the project promotes stability, dignity, and independence for seniors across NSW.

Step-by-step support

Elder Folks is here to help seniors that are experiencing homelessness access safe, affordable and sustainable housing, so they can live well and age with dignity.

Planning and consultation

We assess each client's housing, health, and support needs.

Housing placement and support

We find long term housing solutions fit to your needs.

Procurement and utility management

We connect utilities and source essential household goods.

Ongoing support services

We connect clients to My Aged Care, health services and community supports.
