Helping older
Australians age well,
with dignity, choice,
and care on their terms

Live Well at Home Occupational Therapy Support

Elder Folks is dedicated to delivering personalised support to clients across NSW who need occupational therapy assessments. These assessments are crucial for helping clients secure the necessary recommendations for home modifications that ensure their safety.

We collaborate closely with both clients, their support team, and housing providers to facilitate the prompt implementation of these essential modifications.

Step-by-step support

Elder Folks is here to support older Australians to live safely, independently, and confidently in their homes. A personalised Occupational Therapy assessment is provided to promote wellbeing, independence, dignity and connection to support everyday life in the community.

Understand your needs

A comprehensive assessment to understand your abilities, challenges, routines, and goals.

In-home assessment

An occupational therapist assesses your home environment, safety risks, and functional supports.

Clear recommendations

Practical reports outlining equipment, modifications, and solutions tailored to you.

Support through implementation

We work with providers to help recommendations be actioned smoothly and efficiently.
